Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-27, drawn to a nonwoven needlepunched article, classified in class 442, subclass 402.
 - II. Claims 28-33, drawn to a needlepunched nonwoven batt, classified in class 442, subclass 402.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions I and II are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the claims are drawn to two distinctly different needlepunched nonwovens. The inventions are not capable of use together, and they require different elements, thus having different effects.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and the search required for one group is not required for the other group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.
4. During a telephone conversation with Gregory Clements on 8/09/05 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group II, claims 28-33. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 1-27 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

6. The information disclosure statement (IDS) submitted on 12/15/03 was timely filed. The submission is in compliance with the provisions of 37 CFR 1.97. Accordingly, the information disclosure statement is being considered by the examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

7. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

8. Claims 28-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The new claims presented in the Preliminary Amendment, dated 6/15/05, contain new matter because the claim limitations are not found in the originally filed specification. For example, the specification makes no mention of a char strengthener. Further, the specification does not teach the inherently FR cellulosic fibers required by claim 32. Therefore, the claims are not enabled by the specification as filed.

9. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

10. Claims 28-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The specification makes no mention of a char strengthener, as stated above. It is unclear what Applicant intends as a char strengthener.

11. Additionally regarding claim 30, the amount of cellulosic fiber is unclear.

Describing the cellulosic fiber as an "add-on" amount is not clear.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

12. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Art Unit: 1771

13. Claims 28-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by US PGPub 2003/0082972 to Monfalcone et al.

14. The Monfalcone reference teaches nonwoven flame retardant fabrics having a basis weight between 2 and 15 osy (abstract). The nonwoven needlepunched substrate (para. 40) is made of FR cellulosic fibers (para 42) and includes an intumescent coating, analogous to Applicant's claimed char strengthener. The intumescent finish may be applied in an amount ranging from 15% to 130% (para 63). The examples teach 70/30 rayon/polyester blends (Example 1), all cellulosic materials (Example 3), and other combinations meeting the claim limitations. The reference further teaches using the fabric in mattress applications (para. 29).
